COMPARATIVE LAW

Professor Dr. Dário Moura Vicente
Catarina Granadeiro, LLM
Mestre João Lemos Esteves
Lic. Miguel Câmara Machado

A) General purpose of the course

This course aims at providing students with an overview of the main legal systems of the contemporary world, with emphasis on those of the Civil Law and Common Law legal families.

B) Lecturing system and use of languages

The course is divided into general lectures, in which the topics of the program are expounded systematically and which, due to the COVID limitations will be available in platform Educast, and seminars, to take place in the classroom, in which cases and statutes are discussed with students. General Lectures will be available in Portuguese and seminars, for Erasmus students, in English.

The course may be attended either in the continuous or the final evaluation methods. Students that enrol in the continuous evaluation system may submit a research paper on a topic of their choice, prepared under the supervision of the course lecturers. Those who approve with a grade equal or superior to 12 value points shall be dismissed of sitting a final written test in the end of the semester.

Written papers may be presented in English, French, German, Portuguese, or Spanish.
