

FACULTY OF LAW – UNIVERSITY OF LISBON
PUBLIC INTERNATIONAL LAW I
2024 / 2025
PROFESSOR CARLOS BLANCO DE MORAIS
PROFESSOR ANA FOUTO (TUTORIAL CLASSES IN ENGLISH)

SYLLABUS

Chapter I. Introduction to Public International Law and International Relations

Chapter II. Sources of Public International Law

Chapter III. The Law of International Treaties

Chapter IV. Relations between International Law and the Internal Legal Order of States

Chapter V. Subjects of International Law: States and non-state subjects; full legal capacity and partial legal capacity; a special approach to international organizations (UN, EU, The European Council and the European Court of Human Rights)

Chapter VI. Peaceful conflict resolution

EVALUATION

In tutorial classes, taught in English, students will be invited to engage in research, oral debates and discussion of real cases regarding international organizations, the international protection of human rights and the regulation of the use of force, as well as in resolving hypothetical cases concerning treaty making power and conflicts between international normative acts and internal acts.

Final evaluation will consist of the assessment of oral elements presented in class activities and one written test. Depending on the final grade, a written and an oral examination may be required to complete the course.

BIBLIOGRAPHY

[Available at the Faculty Library, under the indicated call number]

Faculty Library: <https://catalogo-bibliotecas.ulisboa.pt/>

Ian Brownlie, Principles of International Law, Oxford University Press, 2019 [2003 6th edition, call number: C03-1546/D]

James Crawford, Martti Koskenniemi (ed.), The Cambridge Companion to International Law, Cambridge University Press 2012 [call number: C03-2221]

Nguyen Quoc Dinh, Alain Pellet, Mathias Forteau, Patrick Daillier, Droit International Public, Paris, 2009 [call number: C03-1622/F]

Paul Reuter, Droit International Public, Paris PUF, 1983 [call number: C03-177/C]