

Luca Mezzetti, PhD in Public Law from the University of Perugia, Italy, postdoctoral fellow in Constitutional Law from the University of Göttingen, Germany, doctor honoris causa in Law from the Catholic University of Santa Maria of Arequipa (Peru), is a full professor of Constitutional Law and Common Law at the Faculty of Law of the University of Bologna (Italy).

He is Honorary President of the Italian Section of the Ibero-American Institute of Constitutional Law.

He is Director of the High School of Legal Studies at the University of Bologna and Director of the Master's Program in Constitutional Justice and Human Rights at the University of Bologna, where he is also Director of the Postdoctoral Program in Law. He is a professor of Public Law at Bocconi University in Milan.

He is a visiting professor at several foreign universities.

He is a member of the International Academy of Comparative Law.

He is a member of the Societas Iuris Publici Europaei.

He is a member of the scientific committee of several Italian and foreign journals.

He is the author of 20 books, editor of 45 volumes, and author of more than 200 articles on various topics in Constitutional Law and Comparative Constitutional Law.

He speaks fluent German, English, Spanish, French, and Portuguese.